Cleveland Community Police Commission

MESSAGE FROM THE COMMISSIONERS

We want to hear your questions, concerns and suggestions about how the Cleveland Community Police Commission can develop policies and procedures that will achieve comprehensive law enforcement reform and build better community-police relations based on trust and legitimacy. We strive to advance the highest standards of 21st century policing through policy reforms affecting bias-free and constitutional policing, use of force policies, fairness, transparency, accountability, and the development of a culture and practice of policing that promotes the protection and dignity of all people, especially the most vulnerable.

Please share your questions, comments, and suggestions below. Given the CPC has a March 17th deadline to present initial recommendations on Use of Force, we are particularly interested in your input with regard to the CDP and USE OF FORCE, including but not limited to your personal experience or knowledge, input on policies, practices, reporting and training.
